

A COURSE FOR CLINICAL SUPERVISORS

MAY 10-13, 2017

TRINITY WESTERN UNIVERSITY
LANGLEY, BC

About the Course: To give and receive clinical supervision is an essential component of ethical and competent psychotherapy practice. This course features integration of supervision theory with practice elements and prepares you to supervise in a wide variety of contexts including private practice, public agencies and academic institutions. This participatory learning experience includes lecture format, videos, group discussion, in-class exercises and supervision practice sessions.

To Register or for Information, please contact:

Vange Thiessen, vangewt@gmail.com OR

Estera Boldut, MFT Clinical Coordinator, estera.boldut@twu.ca

Vange Willms Thiessen, MAMFT, DMIN
AAMFT Approved Supervisor

About the Presenter-Facilitator: Vange, as an MFT therapist and AAMFT approved supervisor, has provided individual and group supervision for the past 26 years to student interns and graduate therapists. Contexts for supervision have included educational/training settings, community agencies and private practice in both Canada and Kenya. She has been certified to teach this clinical supervision course for over 15 years.

Deadline for pre-registration: April 21, 2017

Please enclose $295.00 with pre-registration, check payable to Vange Thiessen or e-transfer accepted.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Education: _____

Course Schedule

May 10; 6 – 9pm

Defining clinical supervision
Process of supervision
Preferred outcomes & goals

May 11; 9am – 6pm

Supervision theory and ideas
Common factors approach
The supervisory relationship
Person-of-the-therapist

May 12; 9am – 6pm

Structures & methods
Assessment and contracting
Supervisory challenges & interventions.

May 13; 9am – 4 pm

Ethical competency
Culture & diversity
Contextual considerations
Appreciative inquiry

Location:

Trinity Western University
7600 Glover Road
Langley, BC, V2Y 1Y1

Course Fee: $795.00

Includes a comprehensive supervision manual and certificate of attendance.