Community Covenant: In August 2009, Trinity Western University adopted a new Community Covenant Agreement that applies to all students, faculty, staff and affiliates. Students are annually required to read, understand and pledge to the terms of the Community Covenant Agreement prior to registering for classes. If you have questions related to the Community Covenant Agreement or this requirement you may direct them to acts@twu.ca. View the entire Community Covenant Agreement here: www.twu.ca/studenthandbook/university-policies/community-covenant-agreement.html
All students are required to read and understand the Community Covenant Agreement and agree to the terms of the document before being permitted to register for classes. We would encourage you to read this document now and sign that you agree but you may decide to do this at a later date.
