Course Activities/Requirements

Attendance and participation is expected in all classes

All readings are expected to be done before class.

Course Evaluation

1. Research Paper: Students can pick one of five topics (Divorce and Remarriage; Step-family and Blended Families; Severe Illness; Death and Bereavement; Sexual Abuse; or Pornography and Infidelity) with permission of the instructor. Though the instructor will do her best to accommodate student preferences, the topics will be distributed among the students. The five topics will be chosen in the first class. Paper is due at the beginning of the class on your presentation day except for those who will present the first 3 topics. Students who present first can hand in their paper a week later. All assignments should be posted on Moodle.

Paper should include if applicable:

- a. Etiology: prevalence causes, etc.
- b. Assessment (if applicable)
- c. Treatment considerations including cultural issues, gender issues and contraindications for treatment.
- d. Standards of treatment from both an individual and systemic perspective.
- e. The relevant Learning Outcomes outlined above.

It is understood that different aspects of the above will be treated differently depending on the topic chosen.

The paper should be between 15 and 20 pages using the APA format (no more than 20, no less than 15 excluding cover page and references). A minimum of 10 references required. (40 marks)

2. Presentation: Students will present their paper topics in class. If more than one student is presenting on a particular topic, students will need to coordinate their presentations. In the role of guest lecturer, each student will be considered the expert on his/her topic. It is expected that students will have thoroughly researched their topics and will present them to class in a format conducive to learning. Papers and presentations must achieve the relevant outcomes stated above (Outcomes 14-16). Grading will reflect the usefulness of the presentation to student learning and application to client issues. Use of video clips, power point and other media will enhance your presentation. Please prepare a handout for students with room for written notes or send to the participants by email a few days before. Send the instructor handouts in time to be posted on Moodle. (10 marks) (Outcome 14)
3. Blog/Vlog post on Spirituality and MFT
 - Details in class
4. Take Home Exam will consist of 2 parts: Due first week after reading break (30 marks)
 - a. The first part is a multiple-choice exam consisting of 10 questions (1 point/question. It also includes 2 short answer questions. (2 points/question) (Outcomes 1-4, 8-13).
 - b. The second part will focus on a client case. Emphasis will be on sexual dysfunction and therapy, although the student must assess whether there are other factors exacerbating the presenting issues. (10 points) (Outcomes 5,6,7)
5. Feedback on the exam will be available one week after the exam is submitted.

Grading:

Research paper 40%

Class presentation 10%

Take home exam 30%

Blog post 20%

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND AVOIDING PLAGIARISM AT TWU

One of the core values of Trinity Western University is the integration of academic excellence with high standards of personal, moral, and spiritual integrity. The University considers it a serious offence when an individual attempts to gain unearned academic credit. It is the student's responsibility to be informed about what constitutes academic misconduct. For details on this, and on identifying and avoiding plagiarism go to the University Homepage > Academics > Academic Calendar (p. 47).

STUDENTS WITH A DISABILITY

Students with a disability who need assistance are encouraged to contact the Equity of Access Office upon admission to TWU to discuss their specific needs. All disabilities must be recently documented by an appropriately certified professional and include the educational impact of the disability along with recommended accommodations. Within the first two weeks of the semester, students must meet with their professors to agree on accommodations appropriate to each class. Students should follow the steps detailed by the Equity of Access Office on their website at: <http://www.twu.ca/student-life/student-success/disabilities-and-equity-access>.

HOSPITALITY IN THE CLASSROOM

TWU is committed to an ethic of inclusion centered on the principles of Christian hospitality, reciprocity and reconciliation. We seek to cultivate generous learning spaces that are based on respect for differences and are open to diverse views, opinions, and identities that are thoughtfully expressed in a collegial manner. We welcome and value all voices, including those from under- represented groups or those who have been marginalized.

FINAL EXAMINATIONS

“A student who is absent from a final examination without an acceptable excuse will be assigned a zero for that examination. Absence due to illness must be supported by a medical certificate indicating the nature of the illness. If an examination is missed for any reason, including illness, the student must notify the faculty member prior to the examination and the Office of the Registrar within 48 hours of the missed examination, giving written documentation explaining the absence.” 2019-20 Academic Calendar

LATE ASSIGNMENTS POLICY

All assignments are due one week after the last day of class. If you need an extension, you need to ask via email, explaining the reason for extension. If there is no request for extension, there will be a 5% deduction/day, after 10 days I will not accept your assignments.

PROGRAM GRADE SUBMISSION POLICY

I will submit your grades by April 31. If you need the grade earlier, please email me.
